

FOR THE LOVE OF MUSLIMS

Lessons for Online Missionaries dealing with Muslims

Lesson 32: Testimonies

You might enjoy watching some of these testimonies of Muslims who have come to faith in Christ: <http://www.muslimjourneytohope.com/watch.asp>.

The evangelistic website where the testimony is found has a number of interesting resources, including links to other websites. Their focus is on Muslims in the Middle East (who speak mainly Arabic and Farsi), rather than South Asia, but the resources are still helpful: <http://www.muslimjourneytohope.com/default.asp>.

Even if you are not a Muslim background believer (MBB) yourself, your testimony is still of great value as you dialog with your Muslim seeker. Describe your relationship with Jesus as a living God who loves you, answers your prayers, and works in your life to turn you away from sin to holiness. These are important themes that will attract a Muslim seeker to Christ. Try to describe these things without using Christian jargon and theological terms. Instead, replace the standard Christian terminology with a phrase that explains the meaning.

For example, instead of saying, "Let me give you my testimony," say, "Let me share with you what Jesus has done for me." The list of potentially confusing words is long! Choose carefully.
